CIRCUIT RIDERS, INC.

Enclosed for the Bureau and SAC Little Rock are copies of documents being mailed today for Circuit Riders, Inc. as shown by letterhead.

Bureau well knows M. G. LOWMAN and Circuit Riders as friendly Methodist Lay Organization endeavoring to expose Communist infiltration in religious groups.

The documents are made available to Little Rock inasmuch as similar documents are today being placed in the hands of numerous sources in the Little Rock area and relate to persons prominent in Little Rock.

For the benefit of SAC Little Rock, the FBI does not designate other than public source information to the Circuit Riders; does not vouch or comment on, in any way, concerning the releases issued by Circuit Riders.

[redacted] confidentially advised February 3, 1958, that [redacted] for certain white parents in the Little Rock controversy, and who initially alleged that the FBI tapped telephones, will in the immediate future make a public retraction in his appearance before a joint session of the Virginia Legislature. This retraction was engineered and written by M. G. LOWMAN.

Lee Lorch, a member of the faculty at Philander Smith College, Little Rock, Arkansas, has been identified in Congressional hearings as a Communist. His wife, Grace Lorch, also has a record of Communist affiliation.

M. Lafayette Harris, President, Philander Smith College, Little Rock, Arkansas, has at least 10 incidents of Communist affiliation.

Charles S. Johnson, the deceased president of Fisk University, Nashville, Tennessee, had at least 14 incidents of Communist affiliation.

Henry Hitt Crane, Detroit, Michigan, who was publicized in the Communist Daily Worker as a featured speaker at the heroine-establishing dinner for Grace Lorch, has a public record of at least 41 Communist affiliations.

Are we to regard as coincidental the Communist affiliations and relationships of these individuals, whose public records are attached hereto?

Every sputnik requires a launching platform. Whether or not M. Lafayette Harris, and the administration leaders at Philander Smith College, claim unwitting use of a church-connected institution, the fact still remains that a Little Rock church-connected college has been a launching platform for an Arkansas Sputnik.

THE GRAVETTE NEWS HERALD

April 19, 1958

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director of the FBI
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

It was recently called to the attention of our editorial desk that members of the faculty of the Philander Smith college at Little Rock, were (or were suspected of being) members of the Communist party, or were communist sympathizers.

This information was dispatched (apparently to every paper in the state) by a group known as "The Circuit Riders." Not knowing anything of the activities or reliability of this group, we are hoping you will be able to supply us with some concrete information which can be used as editorial material.

Being a member of the Methodist church, I am constantly alarmed by actions taken by some of the hierarchy of the church. This college is supported or sponsored by the church, and if there is irregularity, it should be called to the attention of everyone.

I am constantly dismayed at the attitude of indifference of the general public toward the efforts of your department and others to warn of communistic activities. Our editorial policy here is quite frank in speaking out against groups which we believe are tainted with the communistic doctrine or principle.

I hope you will be able to send us information concerning this college in Little Rock; and the members of its faculty. The persons mentioned in the articles included a Mr. and Mrs. Lorch, and the president whose name I can't recall.

Any information you can supply concerning this institution will be passed along to our people. If you are not in a position to divulge any information at this time, could we be put in line with such information when it becomes available. Any other information which you feel should be brought to the attention of our readers will be greatly appreciated.

It is going to take a lot of old-fashioned hard American work to win this fight, if it's to be won at all. We want to do our part.

Sincerely,

/s/ R. Dodie Evans

Dear Mr. Evans:

Your letter dated April 19, 1958, with its enclosure, has been received, and the motive which prompted your communication is indeed appreciated.

While I would like to be of assistance to you in connection with your inquiries, information in the files of the FBI is maintained as ~~confidential~~ and available for official use only in accordance with a regulation of the Department of Justice. Furthermore, I must advise that the FBI, as a fact-gathering agency, does not issue evaluations or clearances of organizations, individuals or publications. I sincerely regret, therefore, that it will not be possible to furnish you with any information which may be used as editorial material or otherwise.

I am sure you will understand the necessity for this policy and will draw no inference because of my inability to be of assistance that we do or do not have in our files the information you desire.

I can advise you, however, that one of the individuals mentioned in your communication may be identical with an individual subpoenaed to testify in public hearings of the Internal Security Subcommittee of the United States Senate held in Memphis, Tennessee, October 28 and 29, 1957. These hearings received considerable publicity in newspapers of Little Rock, Arkansas, and Memphis, Tennessee. It is suggested, therefore, that you may desire to communicate with these sources for additional information.

The free press of our Nation performs a real service by alerting the public to the dangers of communism and I feel that the American people owe it to themselves to remain constantly aware of this menace.

NOTE TO SAC, LITTLE ROCK:

Enclosed are two copies of correspondent's letter. He enclosed with his letter a copy of the September 26, 1957, issue of his newspaper "The Gravette News Herald." Nothing was noted in this newspaper which appeared to be pertinent to his inquiries in his letter. Bufiles contain no identifiable information concerning the correspondent or his newspaper.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorch, mentioned by correspondent, are undoubtedly identical with Lee Alexander Lorch, currently employed as a professor of mathematics, Philander Smith College, Little Rock, Arkansas, and his wife, Grace Lonergan Lorch. These individuals are subjects of Little Rock files 100-3177 and 100-3178, respectively.

Bufiles reflect no derogatory information of a subversive nature concerning Philander Smith College, a Negro college at Little Rock. From 1937 to 1939, various Bureau representatives accepted invitations to address the student body and faculty of the college. No information is available in Bufiles as to the identity of present faculty members of the college.

Circuit Riders, Incorporated, is an organization made up of laymen of the Methodist Church whose objective is to combat communism in the church.

BENNETT asked Agent [] if he knew anything about LOWMAN. He asked Agent [] to check and see what he had and then to give him a call and he would come over to the Little Rock Office. Thereafter, upon consulting with the SAC, the Bureau was contacted, and Inspector C. D. DeLoach was contacted for advice as to what the Attorney General should be told. Mr. DeLoach stated the Attorney General should be told that we have never investigated Mr. Lowman and therefore we cannot be of any assistance. Mr. DeLoach stated that he was sure we had not investigated Mr. Lowman and that he would double-check it. I told Mr. DeLoach that there was no hurry in our reply to the Attorney General and that we would not make any reply until tomorrow.

Mr. DeLoach asked the SAC as to what relations we had with the Attorney General, whereupon he was told they were as good as they could be with anybody in the state government at this time, but that anything we told him he would use, and it would probably get back to Lowman.

Agent [] was requested to inform the Attorney General as indicated above on September 9th instant.

September 23, 1964

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover,
Director Federal Bureau of Investigation,
Washington, D.C.

My dear Mr. Hoover:

I am writing to know if you have any information that would justify Governor Faubus of Arkansas, or any other person, in saying that Presbyterian clergymen have been "brain washed by left-wingers and Communists", and that some are in fact "left-wingers and Communists".

Rev. Carl McIntire, pastor of the Collingswood Bible Presbyterian Church, New Jersey, and Circuit Riders, Inc., 18 East 4th Street, Cincinnati, 2, Ohio, have been cited as authorities for the statement. An advertisement in the Arkansas Democrat for Sunday, September 21, asked readers to secure a copy of the book entitled "Compilation of Public Records, Presbyterian Church USA Clergymen", published by Circuit Riders, Inc., 18 East 4th St., Cincinnati, Ohio. For your information I am sending you a copy of the advertisement.

Being a Presbyterian myself, and knowing Presbyterian all over the world, I know the statement made by Governor Faubus is a slander. We here in Arkansas are seeking authoritative information in answer to the slander. If in your official capacity you feel that you can help us in any way, we would greatly appreciate it.

Before I conclude this letter let me congratulate you upon your recent volume "Masters of Deceit". I have read this volume with great profit and enthusiasm. You have done a magnificent job and rendered a significant public service in the publication of this book.

With very kindest regards and best wishes, I am,

Yours very truly and sincerely,

P.S. Your book inspired me to preach my Independence Day Sermon on this subject on July 6th

SHOULD GOV. FAUBUS Apologize To The Presbyterians?

Governor Faubus has said the Communists and Left Wingers have done a good job of brainwashing among the Presbyterians. Presbyterian leaders here have vigorously denied Communist infiltration of their denomination.

WHAT ARE THE FACTS?

Circuit Riders, Inc., is one of America's most reputable statistical organizations. Based upon thorough research it furnishes background information on persons having Communist or Subversive affiliations.

This research organization has published a brochure under date of March, 1958, entitled, "A Compilation of Public Records." This brochure gives documented information concerning a LARGE NUMBER of Presbyterian Ministers in the United States who have two or more affiliations with pro-Communist Organizations.

It also gives the name of a well known Presbyterian Theological Seminary whose former president is numbered among those Presbyterian Clergymen having Communist affiliations. Complete information concerning these Presbyterian Ministers, as to the number of them in the United States, the number and name of the Communist organizations each one has been affiliated with and the date and source of the information is available and can be furnished to anyone desiring it.

Also the name of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary and the name of its former president and the number of Communist or Subversive organizations he has been affiliated with can be furnished.

Those desiring this information may write Circuit Riders, Inc., 18 East 4th St., Cincinnati, Ohio, and ask for a copy of "Compilation of Public Records, Presbyterian Church U. S. A. Clergymen." Price per copy $2.00.

in the Communist. It has been quietly working in our midst for years. Through professors and Ivy Town educators, they have in a subtle way, conditioned the minds of ministerial students that ONE WORLD-ISM, ONE RACE-ISM (or mixing of the races) and government control of the personal lives of the individual holds the solution to the World's miseries. Anyone speaking out against this condition of things has been a voice crying in the wilderness. Now the awful harvest is upon us.

We should pray that our beloved Presbyterian denomination will be saved by a purge of its Communist leadership.

Your letter of September 23, 1958, with enclosure, has been received, and your interest in writing is appreciated.

While I can understand your concern relative to the charges made against Presbyterian clergymen, I regret that as a matter of policy it is not possible for me to offer the assistance you suggested. Over the years, I have refrained from injecting my name or the FBI into issues of that nature, and I feel certain you can understand my position in this regard.

Thank you for your very favorable comments on "Masters of Deceit" and for your kind sentiments regarding my administration of the activities of the FBI.

Sincerely yours,
J. Edgar Hoover

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : SAC, Little Rock

DATE: December 10, 1958

FROM : Director, FBI

SUBJECT:

In the event you are not already aware of the situation, it has come to the Bureau's attention that the Special Legislative Committee of the Arkansas State Legislature will hold hearings in Little Rock this coming week and supposedly, they will delve into the activities of the Southern Regional Council, the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc., and the Southern Conference for Human Welfare. It is understood that Myers G. Lowman, Executive Secretary of the Circuit Riders, Inc., will act in the background supplying most of the raw material and the witnesses for the hearings. You are, of course, aware of the connection Daisy Bates and her husband have with these groups.

It is further understood that among the witnesses will be J. B. Matthews, Manning Johnson and perhaps former SAC Guy Banister. //

You should be most circumspect in your dealings with any of these individuals in the event they should contact your office. The Bureau should be closely advised as to the progress of these hearings.

ReBulet to Little Rock dated 12/10/58 concerning this matter.

This is to advise the Bureau that Attorney General BRUCE BENNETT called on the SAC at three o'clock on the afternoon of December 11, 1958, and advised that he was interested in determining whether one [redacted] spelled by BENNETT [redacted] was still in Russia and also he, BENNETT, was interested in seeing a picture of [redacted]. He identified this individual as having left here several years ago and having gone to Russia. He identified him further as being born in Chicago, an American citizen, and that the FBI had checked on him.

BENNETT was advised, as he has been previously advised, that the information contained in the files of the FBI is ~~confidential~~ and cannot be made available to him. He was advised that he was not to deduct from this denial that we either had the information or did not have the information he was seeking. BENNETT indicated in his conversation that he wanted this information in connection with the hearings which are to be had by the Arkansas Legislative Council as referred to in the referenced Bureau letter. He said he did not want anyone "locally" to know that he had made this inquiry.

BENNETT stated the FBI ought to have one of its men present during these hearings because he felt that some significant information would come out. He also stated it would be televised over Local Channel 7. No indication was given to BENNETT that an FBI Agent would be present during the hearings, and it is not planned to have any Agent present at these hearings. Appropriate coverage will be maintained of the hearings and the Bureau kept advised through press and television coverage as well as available local sources.

It is quite obvious that BENNETT is referring to [redacted] whose name is carried in the sub-caption and who was carried in 1950 as a Key Figure in the Little Rock Division. As the Bureau will recall, this subject departed New York City on October 11, 1950, for the purpose of travel to Poland and possibly England and Austria for one year. Information was subsequently received that his address was in [redacted]. No information has come to this office's attention that he has returned to this country. [redacted]

For further information contained in the Bureau's file relative to this individual, the Bureau's attention is called to [redacted]. It will be observed that while in Europe, [redacted] made a practice of mailing Communist literature to friends and acquaintances in Arkansas.

b6

It appears from the above that BENNETT, who could not even spell the individual's name and who did not have accurate information as to his birth, is proceeding in his usual fashion without basic factual information in order to build his political fences in Arkansas on the segregation issue.

The above is submitted to the Bureau for its information.

Re Little Rock letter to Bureau 12/11/58.

On 12/16/58 public hearings of the Arkansas Legislative Council on Communist Activities in the State of Arkansas commenced. BRUCE BENNETT, Attorney General of the State of Arkansas, gave a brief run-down on the aims and purposes of the hearings, which is to show that racial agitation in the Southern United States was a program adopted by Russia in 1930 and which is presently being Communistically inspired. BENNETT said that certain individuals in Arkansas have been willing or unwilling tools of subversion. He said there can be but one conclusion, "that conclusion is that subversion is present".

The first witness was J. L. SHAVER, an attorney from Wynne, Arkansas, and former State Representative, Senator, Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Secretary to Governors HOMER ADKINS and ORVAL FAUBUS, and presently is a member of the State Sovereignty Commission. SHAVER said he was a member of a committee which investigated Communist activities at Commonwealth College, Mena, Arkansas, in 1935. SHAVER enumerated the witnesses called in the 1935 hearing and quoted from the official transcript of these hearings. He also furnished information from the record on the finances, curriculum, teacher qualifications, belief or lack of belief in a supreme being, and various forms of Government taught at Commonwealth College.

SHAVER also testified from the record of activities in Arkansas of the Southern Tenant Farmers' Union and the Workingman's Union of the World, and the connection of the students and teachers of Commonwealth College with these unions.

On two or three occasions, SHAVER pointed out that the hearings in 1935 did not show that all students were Communists or athiests.

SHAVER said the manuscript from which he was reading had been prepared in the office of Attorney General BENNETT and SHAVER deviated from this script when pointing out that the hearings in 1935 did not show that all students were Communists or athiests. Only two Arkansans were in attendance at Commonwealth College when the 1935 inquiry was conducted (Governor FAUBUS was not mentioned).

Prior to SHAVER's testimony, BENNETT said that the following organizations would be mentioned during the course of the hearings:

Southern Conference on Human Welfare
The Southern Conference Educational Fund
The Southern Regional Council
The Arkansas Council on Human Relations
The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People
The Highlander Folk School
The National Negro Congress
The African Blood Brotherhood
The American Negro Labor Congress
The Southern Youth Congress

When the hearings were resumed on the afternoon of 12/16/58, Channel 7 TV station experienced technical difficulties and the testimony of Secretary of State C. G. "CHIP" HALL and GUY WILLIAMS, Pulaski County Chancellor, were not carried by this TV station.

HENRY BIRD, K V L C Radio, summed up HALL's testimony by saying that HALL linked DAISY BATES, head of the NAACP in Arkansas, and her husband, L. C. BATES, with HENRY WALLACE, Progressive Party candidate for President of the United States in 1948. HALL said that WALLACE refused to sign a non-Communist affidavit and, according to BIRD, HALL therefore would not certify WALLACE as a candidate in the election.

According to K V L C radio, Chancellor GUY WILLIAMS identified LEONARD FARMER as being a member of the Communist Party in Arkansas. WILLIAMS gained his knowledge in view of the fact he heard a divorce trial involving FARMER in which FARMER's wife furnished testimony, and, according to WILLIAMS, some documentary evidence that FARMER was a member of the Communist Party.

Congressman OWEN HARRIS, Representative of the Fourth Congressional District of Arkansas, was the next witness and he furnished information concerning the formation of the Dies Committee and the opposition it has met from Communist sympathizers. He furnished the 1/2/57 list of organizations which have been cited by the House Committee on Un-American Activities. He also furnished the 1/1/55 list of organizations that have been cited by the Attorney General of the United States. In addition to the above, HARRIS furnished abstracts of information obtained from the official files of the House of Representatives, House Committee on Un-American Activities, concerning numerous individuals. At the conclusion of the enumeration of the individuals, Attorney General BENNETT said that the above persons would be connected with people and organizations operating in Arkansas. Congressman HARRIS criticized the Supreme Court decision that threw out the various State Sedition Laws.

The next witness was ROBERT E. DILES, who identified himself as an attorney and presently a referee for the

LR 80-382

Workman's Compensation Committee. DILES related that he had attended Little Rock Junior College in 1947 with LADISLAV PUSHKAROKI. He said that PUSHKAROKI showed him copies of the "Daily Worker" and other Communist publications. DILES then identified a photograph which had in the group the following individuals:

- (1) LEONARD FARMER
- (2) L. C. BATES (DILES was unable to identify BATES)
- (3) LADISLAV PUSHKAROKI
- (4) HENRY WALLACE
- (5) DAISY BATES

BENNETT announced the hearings would resume at 9:30 AM, 12/17/58.

Re Little Rock airtel, 12/16/58.

On 12/17/58, hearings were resumed and BRUCE BENNETT, Attorney General, was sworn in and testified that Dr. VERNON McDANIEL of Tuskegee University received $5,000 from THURGOOD MARSHALL of the NAACP to conduct a survey of 20 Arkansas towns to determine their attitude toward integration. BENNETT said he would also show that the Southern Regional Council (SRC) of Atlanta, Georgia, was affiliated with the Arkansas Council on Human Relations. BENNETT then went into a discussion on CLARENCE LAWS, Field Secretary of the NAACP, and said LAWS was discharged from the U.S. Army Reserve as a Major "for security reasons in the interests of national security". BENNETT also cited an article in the ARKANSAS GAZETTE which reflected LAWS was going to Van Buren, Arkansas, in connection with school strife in that town.

J. B. MATTHEWS of New York City was the next witness, and he went into great detail on the SRC, Southern Conference for Human Welfare (SCHW), and the Southern Conference Education Fund (SCEF). He said the SCHW was the predecessor of the SCEF and these groups had the same aims and purposes. MATTHEWS related that the SCHW was the first major thrust made by the Communist Party (CP) to penetrate the south. He said the group was organized with the blessings of FRANKLIN D. and ELEANOR ROOSEVELT. He also said that 40 leading officials of the SCEF had filed a brief as friends of the court in defense of the CP, which was filed in 1955 before the U.S. Supreme Court. He said the SCEF serves as a bridge between the CP and misguided southern liberals. He also testified that the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC), SRC, and SCEF were related mainly through the leaders of these groups. He mentioned DAISY BATES as being on the Board of Directors of the SRC and affiliated with the SCEF. MATTHEWS said M. LAFAYETTE HARRIS, President of Philander - Smith Negro College in Little Rock, was on the Board of Directors of the SRC and SCEF. He said HARRY ASHMORE, Executive Editor, ARKANSAS GAZETTE, a Little Rock daily newspaper, was on the Board of Directors of the Fund for the Republic. He also related that L. C. BATES was on the Board of Directors of the SCEF.

MATTHEWS testified that the SRC receives funds from the Fund for the Republic and the Arkansas Council on Human Relations receives funds from the SRC. The objectives of the Arkansas Council on Human Relations, according to MATTHEWS, is to promote the line of activity promoted by the Communist apparatus.

It is to be noted MATTHEWS in his testimony did not differentiate between when he was testifying from public records or when he was voicing his own opinions.

He also mentioned GRACE and LEE LORCH and their activities at Fisk University, in New England, in New York City, and in Little Rock. He enumerated 51 Negro colleges in the south which had representatives in the SCEF. He said 38 presidents of these institutions were included and the 51 institutions represented 70 per cent of the total Negro colleges in the south.

MATTHEWS also enumerated 94 southern white colleges penetrated by the SCEF. He said this did not indicate these institutions were Communist controlled or that the individuals were Communists and said in most instances they were unwitting dupes.

MATTHEWS made the statement that every major act of violence in the south since the desegregation decision in 1954 was engineered by the SCEP. No facts or incidents were cited by MATTHEWS to substantiate this statement.

MATTHEWS listed the following Arkansas colleges and individuals connected with the SCEP:

Philander - Smith College, Little Rock, M. LAFAYETTE HARRIS, President.

Arkansas Baptist College, Little Rock, T. W. COLLINS, President.

Arkansas State AM & N, Pine Bluff, HORACE ADAMS, President.

University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, ALBERT HOWARD CARTER and FRANK ADLER.

College of the Ozarks, Clarksville, JOHN R. BROSS, MARTHA G. BOSWELL, H. W. KLOEPFER, BUCKLEY RUDD.

A film taken September 2, 1957, at Highlander Folk School at Monteagle, Tennessee, was shown which depicted Negroes and whites socializing. BENNETT and MATTHEWS identified some of the individuals in the film by name.

MATTHEWS related that E. FRANKLIN FRASIER who he said was associated with one of the above groups was listed by the U.S. Supreme Court as one of the authorities used for their decision on desegregation in 1954.

MATTHEWS also related it was his observation that the NAACP is heavily infiltrated by the CP to the extent the NAACP is a more effective agency for the Communist line than some of the Communist front groups. He said the CP has had more success with the intellectual Negroes than with the rank and file. The number one project of the CP is work among the Negroes in the south, creating turmoil in the south and fostering phony peace movements.

MATTHEWS said LUCY BATES (apparently referring to L. C. or DAISY BATES as the 1953 edition of the Little Rock - North Little Rock City Directory lists the home address of L. C. and DAISY BATES at 1804 Bishop, Little Rock), 1804 Bishop Street, Little Rock, and M. LAFAYETTE HARRIS, Philander - Smith, were officers of the SRC who had other CP connections. During the course of his testimony, MATTHEWS related it was also the aim of the CP to undermine and ridicule Mr. J. EDGAR HOOVER, the FBI, the House Committee on Un-American Activities, and the Senate Internal Security Sub-committee. MATTHEWS also stated that Mr. HOOVER in his book, "Masters of Deceit", had said the Southern Negro Youth Congress was a Communist front group.

Attorney General BENNETT then took the stand and introduced a report of the investigation of Dr. McDANIEL of Tuskegee, Alabama. He also introduced a clipping from the Columbus, Ohio, CITIZEN dated 6/15/58, which contained a statement by DAISY BATES to the effect that the NAACP had spent $50,000 on the present lawsuits in Little Rock.

BENNETT then introduced certified documents showing the incorporation of the Arkansas Council on Human Relations which was listed as a subsidiary of the SRC which was incorporated in Pulaski County Circuit Court, 6/24/55. The incorporators were listed as:

CHRISTOPHER C. MERCER, JR., attorney;
FRED K. DARRAGH, JR.;
Reverend C. C. WALKER; and
HARRY S. ASHMORE.

BENNETT then introduced an open letter to the House of Representatives protesting hearings of the HCUA of Atlanta, which set out the names of those individuals signing that letter. Among the signers were the following from Arkansas:

LR 80-382

L. C. BATES, Little Rock;
T. P. JOHNSON;
J. F. KELLY;
Reverend T. O. McJUNKINS, El Dorado; and Reverend S. P. SPOTSWOOD, Warren.

BENNETT then introduced a letterhead of the Arkansas Council on Human Relations dated 10/7/55, which listed the officers as FRED K. DARRAGH, Chairman; Reverend C. C. WALKER, Vice-Chairman; HARRY S. ASHMORE, Vice-Chairman; Mrs. L. C. BATES, Board of Directors; M. W. (MIKE) WILLIS, Board of Directors; NAT R. GRISWALD, Executive Director; CHRISTOPHER C. MERCER, JR., Associate Director; and IDA M. KNOX, Secretary.

For the information of the Bureau, news articles concerning these hearings are being sent to the Bureau daily in Bureau file number 44-12284.

The hearings were recessed until 12/18/55.

On 12/18/58, at 9:30 a.m., the public hearings of the Education Committee of the Arkansas Legislative Council reopened. BRUCE BENNETT, Attorney General of the State of Arkansas, gave a brief rundown on what had transpired the past two days.

MANNING JOHNSON, Negro, was the first witness called. He identified himself as a member of the Communist Party from 1930 until 1940 and enumerated the various positions he had held in the Party. He said that when he testified before the Legislative Council of the Louisiana State Legislature, some over-zealous newspaper men misquoted him. He denied saying that he was an Associate Director of Research with the Department of Justice during those hearings. He said the NAACP had secured a statement from the Department of Justice to the effect that JOHNSON was not an Associate Director of Research, and JOHNSON said the NAACP used the Department's statement to smear him.

JOHNSON then went into a discussion of Communist Party fronts and operations and objectives. He said his first association with the subversives was in 1930 when he joined the American Negro Labor Congress. He said he broke with the Party in 1940 and was contacted by the FBI to work for them and said he did so until joining the U. S. Navy in 1944.

JOHNSON went into great detail on the 1928 and 1930 resolutions made to the Communist International which laid the plans for establishing a "Black Republic" in the USA and the theory of "self determination." He also linked the CPUSA to Commonwealth College at Mena, Ark., and the Southern Tenant Farmers Union in eastern Arkansas.

JOHNSON said the NAACP with Communist backing was responsible for racial strife in Little Rock today. He said the CP was using the NAACP and that the CP was using Little Rock as a test battle. JOHNSON related the NAACP was heavily infiltrated by Communists which was part of the CP plan back in the 1930s. He also said Little Rock and Pine Bluff, Arkansas, were designated as areas of concentration when he was a member of the CP. He praised Governor FAUBUS for his actions in the Little Rock situation and severely criticized the NAACP.

BRUCE BENNETT took the stand at the beginning of the afternoon session and testified that since January, 1955, the Arkansas Council on Human Relations had $ 31,810.97. He said he had been unable to determine where the money came from or how it was spent. BENNETT also cited the testimony of MARTHA NICHOLS EDMISTON before the ECUA hearings on July 12, 13, 14, and August 8, 1950, concerning LEE LORCH. BENNETT again introduced letterhead stationery of the SCEF which listed Arkansas people as being on the Board of Directors.

HERBERT R. (HERBIE) BYRD and C. H. (RUSTY) RALSTON, local newsmen, were the next witnesses and told of their respective agencies receiving telephone calls two or three months ago from an individual who identified himself as NAT GRISWOLD, Head of the Arkansas Council on Human Relations, and advising them of a meeting of the Council and suggesting they might want to cover it for a news story. They went to 1220 West Capitol, Little Rock, which houses the office of the Arkansas Council on Human Relations, and were advised by GRISWOLD he had not called them. The newsmen said they tried to determine from GRISWOLD the type of organization it was and to interview him with negative results. They said it was a bi-racial meeting and GRISWOLD requested they contact him at a later date, at which time he would permit them to interview him. They said he has not called them to date.

It appears that DENNETT's purpose in introducing the testimony of the newsmen was to show that the Arkansas Council on Human Relations, although claiming to be a non-profit and benevolent organization, was holding secret meetings and the head of the organization refused to tell newsmen its purpose and functions.

MANNING JOHNSON again took the stand and furnished information concerning JAMES JACKSON and his rise in the CP. He quoted excerpts from the book, "This Is My Husband," (written by JACKSON's wife), an article written by JACKSON in the 12/7/57 edition of "Political Affairs," and copies of the "Daily Worker." JOHNSON again blasted the NAACP and said they were marching the route set out for them by the CP. He said there was subversion in the local racial situation.

GUY BANNISTER, former SAC, FBI, was the next witness and gave a brief history of the CP and its operations in this country. During his testimony, BANNISTER said he was convinced there has been subversion in the racial strife in Little Rock. He also devoted time to discussing CYRUS EATON, "The Rights," "The New York Post," ELEANOR FERRY, and "The Nation" and their efforts to smear Mr. HOOVER and the FBI. He related that it was part of the Communist tactics to attempt to smear any individual or group that exposed them and said the people conducting the present hearings would undoubtedly also be smeared.

Most of Mr. BANNISTER's testimony was recorded by the Little Rock Division, and part of it is quoted as follows:

BENNETT: Was it amazing to you to find out that we have this organization in Arkansas, in Little Rock, which appeared to be well financed, that none of the reporters or anyone else knew anything in the world about, although it was organized for charitable and benevolent purposes under the name Arkansas Council on Human Relations?

BANNISTER: No sir, it wasn't surprising to me, and I wish I could remember where the printed supplies and printing paper for the Communist Party have been concealed in Little Rock, but I don't remember. I don't remember the address.

BENNETT: There used to be?

BANNISTER: When it used to be, yes.

BENNETT: How long ago?

BANNISTER: Several years ago. I don't remember now. I don't want to remember.

BENNETT: But it was?

BANNISTER: Yes, it definitely was.

BENNETT: Well, I don't want to explore into anything that you accumulated while you were at the Bureau, realizing---

BANNISTER: Well, actually I don't remember.

BENNETT: Well, I know that, realizing the limitations, but following that thought, is it your statement that there used to be Communist printing plates and supplies in Little Rock, Arkansas?

LR 80-382

BANNISTER: Well, we will limit it to a mimeograph machine and some paper, etc. They had that in several places. It was going to——preparing to go underground if if some organization or some group like the power or authority like the Supreme Court didn't bail them out.

BENNETT: But there was a Communist apparatus there at that time?

BANNISTER: Apparatuses are all over the nations.

BENNETT: In Little Rock?

BANNISTER: Yes, in Arkansas.

BENNETT: Yes, well, would you go ahead with your statement, Mr. BANNISTER.

Upon the completion of Mr. BANNISTER's testimony, the public hearings were terminated and the members of the Committee went into Executive session.

The Arkansas Gazette, Little Rock daily newspaper, on 12/19/68, reflected a possibility the hearings may be continued at a later date.

FROM: SAC, CINCINNATI (100-11382)

SUBJECT: MYERS G. LOWMAN
CIRCUIT RIDERS, INC.
CINCINNATI, OHIO

DATE: 4/26/62

Re Chicago letter to Bureau dated 4/20/62, captioned

For the information of all offices, LOWMAN is the Executive Secretary of Circuit Riders, Inc., National Headquarters, 110 Government Place, Cincinnati 2, Ohio. This group is self described in a letter published 1/18/62 on the letterhead of Circuit Riders, Inc., which contains the statement, "Circuit Riders, Inc., was founded in 1951 to uphold those church leaders whose ministry and message is spiritual and moral in its emphasis and to expose and oppose the use of church facilities for socialistic, pro-Communist and other anti-American Activities. Compilations of public records, indicating whose name appeared where in support of which cause, have been the major portion of Circuit Riders, Inc. publications."

(I) CIRCUIT RIDERS, INC. -- It has recently come to the Bureau's attention that Circuit Riders, Incorporated, has published a book entitled "A Compilation of Public Records of 658 Clergymen and Laymen Connected With the National Council of Churches." A copy of this book was mailed directly to the Special Agent in Charge at one of our offices, and it is possible that other offices may receive copies of this book. For your information, the Circuit Riders is an organization made up primarily of laymen in the Methodist Church whose objective is to combat communism in the Methodist Church; however, the organization has no official connection with that Church. Myers G. Lowman is the Executive Secretary of the organization, and in recent years he has leveled numerous charges against clergymen, indicating they are sympathetic toward communism. Lowman has been critical in the past of speeches on communism by a Bureau official [redacted] [redacted] contacts are most circumspect with him.

Lowman, through his organization, has disseminated several other books of a similar type as the current one, which is a compilation of affiliations of the officers and clergymen of the National Council of Churches in pacifist organizations, one-world groups, socialist organizations, popular-front-type of action groups and communist front organizations, publications, petitions, et cetera. The reliability of the material in Lowman's book has not been established, and you should, therefore, appropriately mark this book, if you should receive a copy, to the effect that there has been no corroboration of the material it contains and the FBI should in no instance utilize it as a source by itself. In all cases, the original source, if there is one, should be utilized rather than the book.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover

Director

July

She received a form letter in late August, 1965, inviting her to attend a meeting of "Circuit Riders" which was being held at the Albert Pike Hotel, Little Rock, Ark., on 9/2/65. She attended this meeting, and there were approximately 70 women in attendance. There were only 2 women connected with the Circuit Riders, one a Mrs. H. A. ALEXANDER from Grenada, Miss., who introduced the only speaker, MARTHA EDMONDSON from Dayton, Ohio. EDMONDSON stated that she had been a "Communist for the FBI" in Ohio. Her discussion was primarily concerning the evils of Communism, although she dwelt considerably on Communist infiltration into church groups.

The above is being furnished by Little Rock for the information of the Bureau, Cincinnati, and Jackson in the event MARTHA EDMONDSON's affiliation and the fact that she is lecturing concerning her previous connection with the FBI is not known.
